V. Appendix A, Section 9, Vendor Responsibilities, Z. Privacy and Related Terms is hereby added as follows:

A. Privacy Laws. Each party is responsible for complying with the privacy laws applicable to its business. Customer proprietary network information (CPNI) is defined as data collected about a customer's network and call records including call detail reports. Personally Identifiable Information (PII) is defined as information which can be used to uniquely identify, contact, or locate a single person or can be used with other sources to uniquely identify a single individual. Until directed otherwise by Customer in writing, if AT&T designates a dedicated account representative as Customer's primary contact with AT&T, Customer authorizes that representative to discuss and disclose Customer's CPNI to any employee or agent of Customer without a need for further authentication or authorization. Any PII identified by the Customer and specifically designated physically or electronically as Customer PII disclosed to the AT&T personnel through any service effort must not be communicated, transmitted or disclosed in any manner without the written authorization of the Customer. If Customer does not want AT&T personnel to comprehend or transmit Customer CPNI or PII data to which they may have access in performing services, Customer should identify such data, encrypt, mask, obfuscate, or otherwise protect such data so that it will be unintelligible.

B. Confidential Information means: information the parties share with each other in connection with this Agreement or in anticipation of providing Services under this Agreement, but only to the extent identified as Confidential Information in writing; and except as may be required by applicable law or regulation, the terms of this Agreement and any pricing or other proposals.

C. Obligations. Each party's Confidential Information will permanently following its disclosure to the other party: (i) be held in confidence; and (ii) not be disclosed, except to the receiving party's employees, agents and contractors having a need-to-know (but only if such agents and contractors are not direct competitors of the other party and agree in writing to use and disclosure restrictions as restrictive as this Section 8.H., or to the extent compelled to be revealed by law (including the Texas Public Information Act), governmental authority or legal process (but only if such disclosure is limited to that which is compelled by such legal process and prompt notice is provided to the disclosing party to the extent practicable and not prohibited by law or legal process). These obligations will survive the expiration or termination of the Contract or any Purchase Order under it.

D. Exceptions. The restrictions in this Section will not apply to any information that: (a) is independently developed by the receiving party; (b) is lawfully received by the receiving party free of any obligation to keep it confidential; or (c) becomes generally available to the public other than by breach of this Agreement. e) As part of conducting a background and/or criminal history investigation pursuant to Appendix A, Section 9.J, Customer or its designee, including the Texas Department of Public Safety, may obtain information regarding AT&T employees or subcontractors, which includes, but is not limited to, name, address, telephone number, driver's license number, date of birth, health information, biometric data and other personal information obtained in connection with the investigation (collectively, "Sensitive Personal Information" or "SPI"). Customer and its designee(s) shall consider SPI to be private, sensitive and confidential. SPI may be subject to certain privacy laws and regulations and requirements, including requirements of AT&T, and requires a high degree of protection. Customer shall comply with all applicable privacy laws and regulations and must treat such SPI with the same degree of care as Customer would treat SPI of its own employees and subcontractors including, without limitation:

- (i) Collect SPI only as needed for a background and/or criminal history investigation or otherwise as permissible under this Agreement;
- (ii) Not use, disclose, or distribute any SPI except in connection with a background and/or criminal history investigation or otherwise as permissible under this Agreement;
- (iii) Store and transmit SPI securely, including without limitation encrypting SPI when it is at rest and being transmitted;
- (iv) Restrict access to SPI only to those employees of Customer or its designee(s) that require access to perform the services under this Agreement;
- (v) Immediately notify AT&T if Customer becomes aware that (a) any of the above provisions has been breached; (b) any disclosure of SPI to any third party not expressly permitted herein to receive or have access to SPI; or (c) any breach of, or other security incident involving, Customer's systems or network that could cause or permit access to SPI inconsistent with the above-referenced provisions. Customer shall fully cooperate with AT&T in determining, as may be necessary or appropriate, actions that need to be taken including the full scope of the breach, disclosure or security incident, corrective steps to be taken by Customer, the nature and content of any notifications, law enforcement involvement, or news/press/media contact etc., and Customer shall not communicate directly with any AT&T employee or subcontractor without AT&T's consent, which such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld; and

- (vi) Implement any other administrative, physical, and technical safeguards to ensure proper use, and protect against any unauthorized disclosure, of SPI.

W. Appendix A, Section 10, Contract Enforcement, B. Termination, 4) Termination for Cause, b) Purchase Order or Service Agreement is hereby restated in its entirety as follows:

Customer or Order Fulfiller may terminate a Purchase Order or Service Agreement upon the occurrence of a material breach of any term or condition: (i) of the Contract, or (ii) included in the Purchase Order or Service Agreement in accordance with Section 3.B.2 above, upon the following preconditions: first, the parties must comply with the requirements of Chapter 2260, Texas Government Code, in an attempt to resolve a dispute; second, after complying with Chapter 2260, Texas Government Code, and the dispute remains unresolved, or if Chapter 2260 is not applicable, then the non-defaulting party shall give the defaulting party thirty (30) calendar days from receipt of notice to cure said default. If the defaulting party fails to cure said default within the timeframe allowed, the non-defaulting party may, at its option and in addition to any other remedies it may have available, cancel and terminate the Purchase Order or Service Agreement. Customer may immediately suspend or terminate a Purchase Order without advance notice in the event Vendor fails to comply laws. with confidentiality, privacy or security requirements or is in violation of any applicable.

X. Appendix A, Section 10, Contract Enforcement, B. Termination, 8) Suspension and Termination of Services, is hereby added as follows:

The following additional suspension and termination of Services provisions apply:

a) Fraud or Abuse. AT&T may terminate or suspend an affected Service for cause immediately by providing Customer with as much advance notice as is reasonably practicable under the circumstances if Customer (i) commits a fraud upon VENDOR, (ii) utilizes the Service to commit a fraud upon another party, (iii) unlawfully uses the Service, (iv) abuses or misuses VENDOR's network or Service, or (v) interferes with another customer's use of VENDOR's network or services.

b) Withdrawal of Services. Notwithstanding that a Pricing Schedule or Service Agreement may commit VENDOR to provide a Service to Customer for a Term, and unless applicable law or regulation mandates otherwise, VENDOR may discontinue providing a Service upon 12 months' notice, or a Service Component upon 120 days' notice, but only where VENDOR generally discontinues providing the Service or Service Component to similarly-situated customers.

(c) Materially Adverse Change. If VENDOR revises a Service Publication and the revision has a materially adverse impact on Customer, and VENDOR does not effect revisions that remedy such materially adverse impact within 30 days after notice from Customer, then Customer may, as Customer’s sole remedy, elect to terminate the affected Service Components on 30 days’ notice to VENDOR, given not later than 90 days after Customer first learns of the revision to the Service Publication. “Materially adverse impacts” do not include changes to non-stabilized pricing, changes required by governmental authority, or assessment of or changes to additional charges such as surcharges or taxes.

(d) Internet Services. If Customer fails to rectify a violation of the AUP within 5 days after notice from VENDOR, VENDOR may suspend (and later terminate for cause) or terminate the Service for cause. If Services are provided over or access the Internet, VENDOR may act immediately and without notice to suspend or terminate Service in response to a court order or government notice that certain conduct must be stopped or when VENDOR reasonably determines (i) that it may be exposed to sanctions or prosecution; (ii) that such violation may cause harm to or interfere with the integrity or normal operations or security of VENDOR’s network or networks with which VENDOR is interconnected or interfere with another customer’s use of VENDOR services or the Internet; or (iii) that continuation of the Services otherwise presents imminent risk of harm to VENDOR or VENDOR’s customers or their respective employees.

Y. Appendix A, Section 10, Contract Enforcement, B. Termination, 9) Effect of Termination, is hereby added as follows:

a) Termination or suspension by either party of a Service Component or Service does not waive any other rights or remedies a party may have under the Service Agreement. Termination or suspension of a Service Component or Service will not affect the rights and obligations of the parties regarding any other Service.

(b) If a Service or Service Component is terminated, Customer will pay all amounts incurred prior to the effective date of termination.

Z. Appendix A, Section 10, Contract Enforcement, B. 10) Termination Charges is hereby added as follows:

If, on or after Customer’s obligation to pay for Services begins, Customer terminates a Purchase Order or Service Agreement for convenience or Vendor terminates a Purchase Order or Service Agreement for Customer’s fraud or abuse, Customer’s hazardous materials violations, or Customer’s material breach, Customer will pay termination charges as follows:

If termination occurs before the end of the term of the Service Agreement, 50% (unless a higher percentage is specified in the Service Agreement) of the monthly recurring charges for the terminated Service or Service Component multiplied by the months remaining in the term, plus any waived or unpaid non-recurring charges identified in the Service Agreement, plus any charges incurred by AT&T from a third

AA. Appendix A, Section 10, Contract Enforcement, C. Force Majeure is hereby restated in its entirety as follows:

Except in the case of payment of amounts due, for which such payments do not directly involve an event of Force Majeure, DIR, Customer, or Order Fulfiller may be excused from performance under the Contract for any period when performance is prevented due to any cause beyond such non-performing party's reasonable control, including an act of God, strike, war, civil disturbance, epidemic, loss or damage due to fire, explosion, cable cuts, power blackout, earthquake, flood, embargo, labor disputes, acts of civil or military authority, acts of a public enemy, acts or omissions of carriers or suppliers, acts of regulatory or governmental agencies, or court order, provided that the party experiencing the event of Force Majeure has prudently and promptly acted to take any and all steps that are within the party's control to ensure performance and to shorten the duration of the event of Force Majeure. The party suffering an event of Force Majeure shall provide notice of the event to the other parties when commercially reasonable. Subject to this provision, such non-performance shall not be deemed a default or a ground for termination. However, a Customer may terminate a Purchase Order within thirty (30) days of the issuance of the Purchase Order if it is reasonably determined by the Customer that, as a result of a Force Majeure event, Order Fulfiller will not be able to deliver products or services in a timely manner to meet the business needs of the Customer.

BB. Appendix A, Section 13, Import/Export Control is hereby added as follows:

The parties acknowledge that equipment, services, software, and technical information (including technical assistance and training) provided under this Contract may be subject to import and export laws, conventions or regulations, and any use or transfer of the equipment, products, software, and technical information must be in compliance with all such laws, conventions and regulations. The parties will not use, distribute, transfer, or transmit the equipment, services, software, or technical information (even if incorporated into other products) except in compliance with such laws, conventions and regulations. Where required, an AT&T Affiliate authorized by the appropriate regulatory authority will be the service provider.

B. AT&T Equipment. Services may include use of certain equipment owned by AT&T that is located at the Site (“AT&T Equipment”), but title to the AT&T Equipment will remain with AT&T. Customer must provide electric power for the AT&T Equipment and keep the AT&T Equipment physically secure and free from liens and encumbrances. Customer will bear the risk of loss or damage to AT&T Equipment (other than ordinary wear and tear) except to the extent caused by AT&T or its agents.

Customer must comply with all such terms and conditions and they take precedence over this Contract as to such software.

EE. Appendix A, Section 16, Customer’s Cooperation is hereby added as follows:

A. Access Right. Customer will in a timely manner allow AT&T to access property and equipment that Customer controls as reasonably required to provide the Services, and Customer will obtain, at Customer’s expense, timely access for AT&T to property that Customer does not control (other than public property) as reasonably required to provide the Services. Access rights include the right to construct, install, repair, maintain, replace and remove access lines and network facilities, as well as to use ancillary equipment space within a building, as necessary for Customer’s connection to AT&T’s network. Customer must provide AT&T timely information and access to Customer’s facilities and equipment as AT&T reasonably requires to provide the Services, subject to Customer’s reasonable security policies. Customer will furnish any conduit, holes, wireways, wiring, plans, equipment, space, power/utilities, and other items reasonably required to perform installation of the Services, and obtain any necessary licenses, permits and consents (including easements and rights-of-way). Customer will have the Site ready for AT&T to perform its work according to a mutually agreed schedule.

AT&T will not be liable for any Hazardous Materials. If AT&T encounters any Hazardous Materials at the Site where AT&T is to install, maintain or provide Services, AT&T may terminate the affected Service or Service Component, or suspend performance until
